

June Sales Take Fresh Start Tomorrow

Cash Has a New Value Today

It takes money to finance a business of this size—borrowed money. In ordinary times we borrow what money we require at about one-half the rate of interest prevailing today. And high interest rates cut down profits.

There is another way out—and that is to sell the merchandise on hand for cash and avoid the necessity of much borrowing, and there you have the real reason for this sale.

This sale will supply all the cash we require for the buying of fall merchandise; that's why charges are suspended. Also we are giving more merchandise for the cash than usual. We are giving the public the advantage instead of giving it to the money lenders.

The June Cash Sales take a fresh start tomorrow. See the Monday morning specials.
